

Art in the Community: Terms and Conditions

- 1.) Artists are required to be a current Quinte Arts Council (QAC) member, or under the umbrella of a Member Group (for Group Shows) with a current membership, unless approved by the QAC.
- 2.) Artists are expected to have insurance coverage.
- 3.) All show bookings will be at the QAC's discretion.
- 4.) No show will be permitted for the same period year after year, and no group or individual will be allowed more than one show a year, unless approved by the QAC.
- 5.) The artist will provide in advance a list of works with title, medium, and price and will ensure delivery of works ready for hanging by the required date, as determined by the QAC.
- 6.) The QAC will select from the artist's work only the pieces it feels will provide the best exhibition.
- 7.) The QAC holds the right to photograph and own any such photographs, and to reproduce for social media, promotion, etc.
- 8.) The QAC reserves the right to close exhibitions to the public for limited periods of time in the QAC Gallery.
- 9.) The QAC team will handle all sales of works of art. A 30% commission will be charged on all sales (40% for non-members). Art will remain part of the show until closing, unless approved by the QAC. Should a purchaser wish to negotiate the price of a work with the artist directly, the sale will proceed through the QAC once the artist confirms the revised pricing.
